Amber warning
Rain

Between 12:00 Tue 23 Feb 2021 and
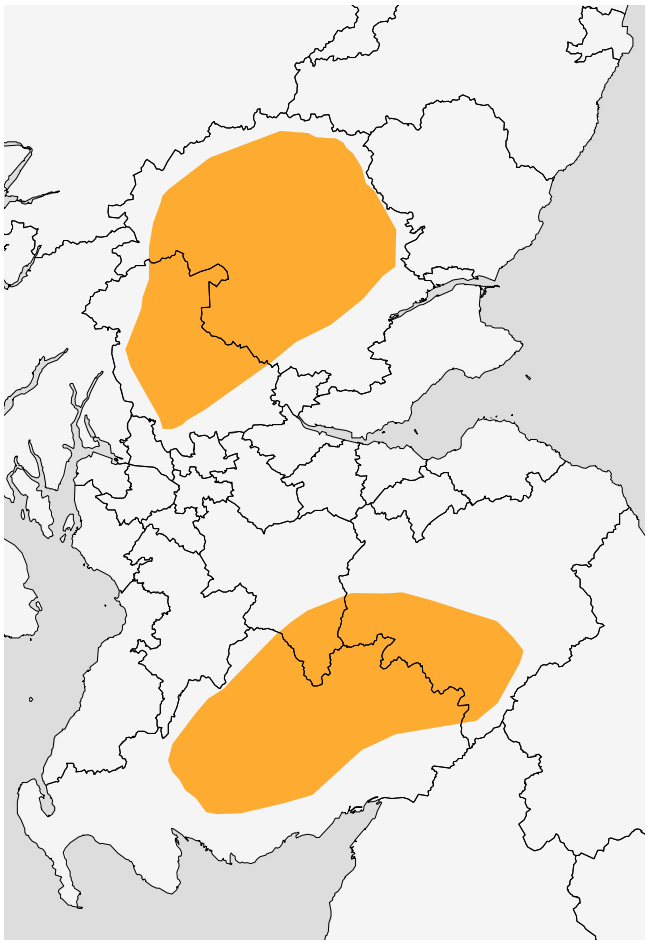
06:00 Wed 24 Feb 2021



Persistent heavy rain on saturated ground bringing further flooding.

What to expect

- Homes and businesses are likely to be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is likely, causing danger to life
- A good chance some communities cut off by flooded roads
- Delays and some cancellations to train and bus services are likely
- Spray and flooding probably leading to difficult driving conditions and some road closures

Further details

Heavy rain will continue to affect much of Scotland during Tuesday before clearing on Tuesday night. This is likely to bring a further 20-40 mm across the warning area with a few places probably seeing 60-80 mm. Drier conditions will arrive from the west towards the end of the night. Strong southerly winds are likely to accompany the rain.

Reason for update

Updated end time of warning, with updates to rainfall amounts and times to account for rain that has already fallen. Area also slightly trimmed.
